“For the Glory of God And the Good of The Community”

VOLUME 21

ISSUE 10

October 01, 2016

From the Pastor's Cluttered Desk,

You have a tremendous effort to get our new church year off to a great start. This past Sunday there were 81 people in attendance in Sunday School! Worship attendance has been good as well. We have also experienced grief in the loss of members to illness recently as well. You are to be commended for the wonderful way you have responded to the families of those that have lost loved ones. This is an essential part of genuine ministry.

Volunteers have given of their time and energy to spruce up the church grounds in preparation for our Homecoming Service on October 9. Many thanks to all of the volunteers that have helped with this project. Barbara and I would also like to express our appreciation for the workers that showed up to help with yard work and cleaning at our home. Your gift of labor and friendship is appreciated more than you can know.

The fellowship building has recently been painted and looks great! Work should begin soon to hang new drapes and to begin remodeling in the church kitchen. Many thanks to the committee for their continued efforts to move forward with this project.

Acts 11:20 tells us, “The disciples were called Christians first at Antioch.” Earlier, Paul referred to the disciples as belonging to “The Way.” In Antioch they became known as those who were “like Christ.” What name would you like to be known by? Some monikers are not very pleasant. To be known as a person that is Christ-like should be our goal in life. What words best describe you? How do others see you?

Rev. David Smith recently gave a list of goals: “Peace Maker, Bridge Builder, Commitment Keeper, Hurt Healer, Faith Sharer, Community Uniter, Love Giver, and Jesus Follower.” These are high goals! He admits he will never live up to them, but with the help of God he will try.

Colossians 1:17-18 tells us, “He (Jesus) is before all things, and in Him all things hold together. And He is the head of the body, the church; He is the beginning and the firstborn from the dead, so that in everything He might have the supremacy.”

In these trying times it is good to be reminded that Jesus “Holds all things together.” In a world where evil rears its ugly head all too often remember that Jesus has supremacy. We do well to let Jesus have supremacy in our daily routine. In the Gospel of John, Jesus tells us that He came that we might have life “more abundant.” That will come as we give Jesus first place in our attitudes, our actions, and words. We do well to think, and pray, before we speak.

Psalm 91 speaks of “the terror of the night...the arrow that flies by day...the pestilence that stalks the darkness...or the destruction that waste at noonday.” (vs. 5-6). People that trust in God do get cancer. People that trust in God do have heart attacks, automobile accidents, suffer senseless acts of violence, and infants are born with birth defects. God does not always make trouble go away. But nothing, not even death, can separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord (Romans 8:39).

Thank you for the commitment you have made in beginning this new church year with a great effort. Let me urge you to continue to present yourself to Christ; because it is a reasonable thing for each of us to do. Don't forget that we are receiving the State Missions Offering and that the gifts are used for a wide variety of mission efforts here in North Carolina.
