“For the Glory of God And the Good of The Community”

VOLUME 22

ISSUE 03

MARCH 01, 2017

From the Pastor's Cluttered Desk,

Over the years I have seen individual believers overcome overwhelming odds and unlikely situations to become much more than anyone could have ever imagined. Much of the credit for their success was due to the church community that filled them with hope, encouragement, and that also demanded accountability. Paul's letters describe a Spirit-filled culture in the early church that used teaching, imitation, encouragement, correction, inspiration and unity to turn a bunch of misfits into the body of Christ. They were unified in their love for God and each other. Their focus was always outward, toward God and the neighbor.

Regular involvement in acts of worship, discipleship, missions, volunteering our time and talent; becoming involved in Bible study and devotion all work together to build up our potential. As we work together we live out our lives in a community of faith. In doing this we share our talents, gifts, and abilities; everyone is involved, not just the most talented. Together we become healthier than we could alone.

We are entering the season of Lent and will soon begin a journey toward the cross. As we reflect on the death and resurrection of Christ, may we remember that we are called upon to die daily to self so that Christ can live fully in each of us.

March is going to be a busy time! On March 4th we will need a large group of volunteers to help get the playground equipment installed. Work will begin at first light! Bring your gloves and a willing spirit. If you have questions give Mr. Lance Bullard or Mr. Gabe Shoffner a call.

March 5th will be our Youth Sunday. Let me urge you to be here to lend your support!

The Week of Prayer for North American Missions will be March 6 -12. This will begin the time for our Annie Armstrong Easter Offering.

Mark your calendar so that you will remember the Beginning of Day Light Savings time on Sunday, March 12. Set your clocks forward one hour before you go to bed on Saturday night.

YOUTH OF THE MONTH NEWS

February was fast paced and we have finished Genesis. Brooke does a great job each week and we are very thankful for her.

Please pray for our youth as we prepare for our big day, March 5, Youth Sunday. We will be taking our youth out to lunch and going on an adventure in Fayetteville. More info next month on our experience and how well it turned out. So stay tuned..

Our youth focus for this month is Jared Maguire. Where is he now? After graduating from NC State University with a BS Degree in Agriculture Science in 2015,

Jared went to work as a Manager Trainee with the USDA Farm Service Agency. He worked in the Sampson County Office for six months and then traveled to several counties in the state to continue his training. Upon completion of his training, he became the County Executive Director of the Wake County Farm Service Agency and lives in Raleigh, NC.

We are very proud of Jared and wish him the best. Jared also traveled with us on our annual ski trip in January and we were very happy to spend some time with him. Below is his address so that you may send him a card and let him know that he is missed!

WOM NEWS

The WOM held its February Meeting at the home of Barbara Shook. After the business session and prayer requests, our host , Barbara, was in charge of the program. She shared a story from the Mosaic Magazine about the Baptist Relief Program sponsored by the NC Baptist Men. Both She and Preacher Mike have taken the training and are qualified to go if called in any situation that might come up.

After the meeting Barbara served us a delicious meal.

From time to time we go on an out- of- town excursion and of course make time for a meal together.

Our March meeting will be a joint meeting with the BYW. Our focus will be North American Missions and the Annie Armstrong Easter Offering. We will meet March 12th at 5:30 pm at the fellowship building. Bring a finger food and join us for a great time int the Lord.

Our schedule for the Easter Services will be the same as last year; Sunrise Service on April 16th at 7:00 a.m., breakfast in the Fellowship Hall at 7:30 a.m., Sunday School at 8:30 a.m. and our Easter Cantata at 9:30 a.m. in the sanctuary.

Keep in mind that better health inside the community of faith begins with you, not those around you. Devote yourself to a spiritual lifestyle that is aligned with the designs God has for you. Impact those around you in a positive way by being filled with the Holy Spirit and led by the Spirit. May the fruits of the Spirit grow in you and impact Beaver Dam Baptist Church as God fully intends.

Yours in HIS service,

Michael Shook
